

JOIN

CARL ZIMMER

(New York Times columnist
and Author of *She Has Her Mother's Laugh:
The Powers, Perversions, and Potential of Heredity*)

ON

MARCH 7TH

FOR A

PUBLIC LECTURE:

“She Has Her Mother’s Laugh”

Zimmer redefines heredity,

weaving together scientific research, exemplary original reporting,

AND HIS OWN EXPERIENCE AS A PARENT OF TWO DAUGHTERS.

Explore the ways in which DNA EDITING

with the powerful new tool CRISPR

may change our world—
and ourselves.

PUBLIC LECTURE
A reception and book signing will follow

Thursday, March 7 at 5:30pm
ALICE CAMPBELL ALUMNI CENTER BALLROOM

Contact: David Sepkoski, sepkoski@illinois.edu

I ILLINOIS

Sponsored by Department of History and Carl R. Woese Institute for Genomic Biology