

Design a Plant Worksheet

Imagine you can make a totally kind of plant by combining the different types of roots, stems, and leaves we learned about. If you like, think of a specific environment you want your plant to live in or way you would want to use your plant and give your plant characteristics to match.

Draw a picture of your plant in the box below and describe your plant in the space provided

---

---

---

---